Radicalisation on Gaming Platforms

Please read the article of how the use of video games is being used to radicalise young people. Something to watch out for as so many of our learners play these games. Extremists using video-game chats to spread hate - BBC News

Delivering Essential Digital Skills?

Make sure you have signed up to the Essential Digital Skills community of Practice. This is also a useful group for those who are embedding digital skills within their curriculum.

Don't forget to share any useful webinars with your colleagues and if you have any recommendation that would support across the wider team then please let me know so they can be included in the next update.

Lifelong Learning Week 2021

Learning and Work Institute organise a week of activity, Lifelong Learning Week, each year as part of their Festival of Learning campaign. This is taking place from Monday 8 November until Friday 12 November.

Please find attached a partners communication pack for your organisation to use to help promote the week of activity. All the social media graphics you need are available to download here. Please remember to use the hashtag - #LifelongLearningWeek

They have some great activities lined up with some fantastic campaign partners and we are thrilled to see everything come together. We want this week to celebrate the very best in adult education, showcase the amazing achievements of individuals and groups across England, and encourage everyone and anyone to start their learning journey.

On Thursday 11 November they are hosting their annual English, Maths and ESOL Conference. Please do join us if you aren't already and we encourage you to amplify messages around basic skills on social media on this day.
