Preparing for Inspection

How well are you prepared for an Inspection?

Provider Managers (responses by end of April please)

Q1. Does your Self-assessment accurately reflect the strengths and weaknesses of your courses/provision, so that you can identify where improvements are needed? To test this out, perhaps review your final SAR for 2021/22; your current QIP; as well as consider what you have written so far on your draft for 2022/23. However, regardless of whether last year's report does/does not, please focus on what actions are in your QIP, and ensure as you draft your current 2022/23 SAR the narrative does accurately reflect the strengths and weaknesses of your courses/provision, so that you can identify where improvements are needed.

Q2. How do you ensure that your tutors improve the targets used for measuring progress and achievement of learners on non-accredited learning programmes, so that these become sharper and specific enough to be easily measurable?

Q3. How do you ensure the quality of teaching, learning and assessment for your adult learners, so that it is consistently good?

Expectations are that staff (relevant to their roles) are familiar with the Education Inspection Framework \(EIF\) and Further Education and Skills Handbook \(section 2\).

NB We now have a dedicated page to any materials relating to Inspection on the VLE Course: OFSTED Guidance & Reports \(skillsandparticipation.co.uk\)

If you would like to research more on what to expect or how to prepare for an Ofsted inspection, then do look on the VLE.

* New for the summer term:

Retrieval Practice: ideas to enable retrieval practice in starters and plenaries, promoting long-term memory.

A number of tutors on the tutor survey indicated that they would like more CPD opportunities, we are always open to suggestions of topics to inform our CPD offer as well as recommendations from events, videos, or podcasts which tutors have found helpful.

Please do drop me an email of any suggestions:

Teaching Pedagogy:

Barak Rosenshine has created 10 principles that support learning, over the next few editions we will be providing you with key information on each element. These underpin current pedagogical teaching practices. There are four very clear strands that run through the 10 sections – reviewing material, questioning, explaining, and modelling, practice.

Rosenshine's Principle no 5, 7 and 9 Stages of Practice

Tutors need to be on hand for learners' initial attempts at using new information, so that we can ensure learners are fully supported and misconceptions are identified early, and confidence is nurtured. Guided practice requires close supervision and feedback. High success rate is important, Rosenshine suggests the optimum is 80%, with 100% success the question arises as to whether or not we set expectations too low. For learners to build learning into their long-term memory then they need to engage in independent practice. This enables the skills and knowledge to become automatic, with easy recall.

Teaching Glossary: Active Learning

Active learning is based upon constructivist theories of learning. Active learning means that learners make sense of new knowledge and skills by making links with previous learning, through actively engaging and participating in a variety of learning tasks. There is less tutor talk and more learner activity. Active learning is about learning by doing supporting neural connections.

Professional skills

Select and use digital technologies safely and effectively to promote learning.

Digital tools: Google Lens

Google Lens is a set of vision-based computing capabilities that can understand what you're looking at and use that information to copy or translate text, identify plants and animals, explore locales or menus, discover products, find visually similar images, and take other useful actions.

Google Lens - Search What You See

ESOL tutors: write and improve.

Write & improve with Cambridge \(writeandimprove.com\)

Developed by the University of Cambridge, Write & Improve is a FREE tool that helps every learner to improve their English writing. Choose from hundreds of tasks at all levels, learners submit their writing and get a result linked to the international standard. You can use this as an initial assessment and as independent learning/practice.

Safeguarding and Wellbeing

Safe Space

The Education and Training Foundation have created a resource on creating a 'Safe Space' online for teaching and learning. The resource aims to equip practitioners with the knowledge, skills, and confidence to safely facilitate sessions online with learners in a variety of different contexts and settings. It deals with topics including recognising the importance of looking after yourself, how to be more in control of delivery, and what might be driving behaviour.
