'C' was nervous to join this group, however she felt welcomed by the group and her tutor Jo and she was grateful at how friendly everyone was.

'C' said that everyone clicked, she was excited to make new friends, she explained there were lots of people with the same name in the group, if in doubt of someone's name just call them 'C'!

'C' said no matter what was happening in your life, you could go to this session and have a good laugh. She enjoyed going very much. She explained that she is due to have an operation and won't be able to drive for the week of the concert performance, but one of the other group learners offered to pick her up so she doesn't have to miss the opportunity. She was delighted that she could still go.

If the learner would like to add any additional information, comments or feedback about the impact that the course had on them, please use the section below:

A year ago, 'C's' husband passed away suddenly; this was during the time when they were dealing with their daughter's cancer diagnosis. 'C' said it was a very difficult time. She had to stop coming to the lessons but was keen to join again in September of this year. She explained that it is such a supportive group, she is so grateful to be able to come along. She explained that it was fun and full of like-minded people. A pleasure to have this in your week.
