Oksana's journey in the "English for Employability" course showcases the practical and life-changing impact of language education. Throughout the course, she demonstrated commitment by regularly analyzing job interviews as part of her home assignments. She applied the skills learned by tailoring cover letters for three job applications, successfully securing two job interviews. Her dedication and improved confidence ultimately led to her being offered a position as a barista.

This achievement not only marks a significant milestone in her professional life but also highlights her increased ability to navigate the job market independently. She expressed genuine happiness at her new job, which reflects the course's success in empowering learners to achieve their goals. Her story serves as an inspiring example of how ESOL courses can transform lives by equipping individuals with the language and employability skills needed to thrive.

If the learner would like to add any additional information, comments or feedback about the impact that the course had on them, please use the section below:
