This learner is a single parent who is originally from Greece where she worked as a hairdresser. She was keen to gain employment in the UK in a role where she can still be home to look after her child in the school holidays and after work.

During this sector-based employability course she was encouraged to approach her local primary school to gain experience as a volunteer helper. She was also advised to attend additional courses to show interest in working with children. Subsequently, she attended short courses with HA: "Introduction to Equality & Inclusion in Childcare Settings" as well as an "Introduction to Supporting Children and Young People's Nutrition." She was able to add these additional achievements to her CV.

After the course finished, this learner updated her CV and approached the primary school where her child will be attending in September 2025. She applied to help as a volunteer at the school and has been doing now for a couple of months. At the start of June 2025 she will start as a paid teaching assistant for just a few hours per week and in September 2025 will be increasing her hours when her child starts school.

She said the courses have really helped her confidence to approach the school for volunteering experience and to communicate with the school headteacher. It also improved her confidence to understand what would be expected of her in terms of working with children and having an awareness of safeguarding and inclusion. She is really looking forward to starting her paid role at the school and hopes to do more training once she is working, to help her progress to take on more responsibility.
