"I enjoyed the course, and it gives me confidence in my painting and drawing abilities. It took me over two years before I could accept praise from tutor Rachel, and even longer before I started to accept praise from my peers. I also find that when I am painting/drawing or using mixed media I can lose myself and live in the moment. I find I understand more about art and enjoy meeting all the people at the group weekly."

This learner has progressed onto self-funded workshops as she feels more confident in attending classes in the library. She is a learner with complex mental health issues and the relief this course has brought her has been immeasurable.
