Feedback from learners attending Beginners Guitar Ringwood Library with Jo Powell.

I am now able to play the Guitar and play some songs. I have learnt chords and how to pick which has given me a great sense of achievement. I have really enjoyed learning a new skill together with other people.

It has improved my self-confidence, met new people, felt part of something. I have really enjoyed the choice of music too.

This course introduced me to new skills, I really enjoyed learning something new. Meeting like minded people and developing new skills.

The tutor was excellent at giving new opportunities to learn the guitar. I have really enjoyed learning the guitar with others.

Confidence! New friends and progress as a group.

Face to face instruction really helps, more individual and easier to understand.

This course was taught at a really good pace, a real sense of achievement after each session.

This group have set up a WhatsApp group and hope to continue their guitar practise together in the library.
