

Conservation Persuasive Letter Writing

You are writing to the local Member of Parliament. You are either a builder wanting planning permission to build more houses, or you are a member of the RSPB who wants to protect nature and the wildlife in the countryside, particularly the turtle dove whose numbers have declined by 95% since 1995.

Your address:

Date:

Dear MP of _____,

I am writing to you because _____

Within my letter, I aim to explain _____

Due to my line of work, I am responsible for _____

Therefore it is important that _____

If it is not possible, there will be problems with _____

Conservation Persuasive Letter Writing

This will cause lasting difficulties for _____

Furthermore, you also need to think about _____

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter and _____

Lastly, think about _____

Do you _____

Yours sincerely,

Conservation Persuasive Letter Writing

Your address:

Date:

Introduction: Introduce yourself and write an overview of why you are writing.

Paragraph 2: Explain some of the reasons why conservation/building or farming are important, depending on the point of view you are expressing. Add persuasive language from the word mat.

Conservation Persuasive Letter Writing

Paragraph 3: Explain in more detail, the overall benefits of your suggestion or thoughts. Add persuasive language from the word mat.

Conclusion: Repeat your reasons for writing. Thank the reader. Add a rhetorical question.

Yours sincerely,

Conservation Persuasive Letter Writing

Your address:

Date:

Introduction

Paragraph 2

Paragraph 3

Conservation Persuasive Letter Writing

Conclusion

Yours sincerely,
