

THREE OF THE 'BEST'

Careers Websites that suit different Learning Styles

Whether you want to find out more about a job option, or need help identifying what job options are open to you, there are lots of resources available that you can use at home.

We know that people can prefer to learn and find out information in three main different ways. You can find out more about these ways here. Below are some of the Careers Websites our Careers Advisers use with their students that suit these different styles.

Visual (i.e. Reading)

Start Profile

Prospects \(careers advice\)

National Careers Service \(Job Profiles\)

Audio (i.e. Watching / Listening)

iCould: Explore Careers

BBC Bitesize Careers

YouTube (try channels like Careers Box or Health Careers)

Kinesthetic (i.e. Doing Activities)

SACU (Spartan Test)

Skills Assessment (National Careers Service)

For further guidance or to speak to a Careers Adviser, please email careers.service@hants.gov.uk