

ACL update No 5

Dear All, thank you for all your continued work in these challenging times. We have more courses being prepared for delivery which is good news, and others in the pipeline. It is really encouraging that so many are thinking how best to engage with learners.

You will find below information on different support that is available and CPD/training opportunities. Please do share what you think is relevant to your contacts.

Please do contact us if you need anything else.

Keep safe and well

Wendy Scott

Development coordinator (teaching and learning)

Wendy.scott2@hants.gov.uk

07548156112

Connect to Support - Hampshire

The Connect to Support Website Coronavirus Resource Page is the most visited HCC website over the current C19 period, for obvious reasons. It signposts to a number of LA, government and other services pages both locally and nationally. It has 15 different sections including boredom busters!

---

Furloughed staff and training:

The Government furlough scheme allows staff to undertake training whilst furloughed. There are a wide range of online courses available and many of these are free.

One of these is FutureLearn. If you are not familiar with this organisation, they offer hundreds of online short courses from top universities and specialist organisations via their website, and they offer free access to anyone on all their courses in the current climate. You can find courses relating to teaching, management or improve your skills in some other area of your life – learn a new language, focus on your mental health or take a short course on an area of history that interests you – there is literally something for everyone.

---

Geoff Petty Webinar Series

The first in this series of live webinars 'Independent Learning - a structured approach to corona teaching' took place on 23 April. You can access the recording here to hear from Geoff as he discusses how to work with a lack of resources when learners may not have access to certain materials during this time of remote learning.

The other webinars are only available to SET members. If you have SET membership, then you can access the other three webinars

- Learning teams and study buddies - providing students with support
- Structuring the learning of a topic - the RAR approach
- Evidence-based methods to include in your learning programmes

---

Additional resources and activities for tutors

HERE.

The National Archive are now providing free access to their digital records available on their website for as long as they remain closed to visitors. Registered users can now order and download up to 10 items at a time, up to a maximum of 50 items over a rolling 30-day period. The limits are there to help ensure the availability of their digital services for everyone – you can read more about the service, including details of what's available to download,

The University of Reading are offering free Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs) via Future Learn. Visit Here for more details. The University of Southampton also have free MOOCs and podcasts available HERE

If you are interested in Educational Podcasts we have another list of 15 of the best to listen to which can be found HERE

---

Safeguarding Update: Coronavirus Lockdown

Leaders in Safeguarding is hosting a safeguarding update webinar.

Dr Dan Grant is leading the webinar which deals with the challenges of safeguarding children and adults during the coronavirus lockdown. Participants will be able to identify and share good practice with supportive professionals. We will be answering your questions and providing expert advice. This webinar is limited to 20 places.

The webinar will take place on Tuesday, 12th May 2020, at 10:30 am; and covers:

- an update on changes in guidance and legislation
- the impact of these changes on safeguarding arrangements
- how to inform your staff and learners about the precautionary measures
- how to adapt your policies, procedures and guidance
- guidance on next steps for DSLs
- a Q&A session
- other training courses, webinars and online audits.

There is a charge of £99 per place (multi purchase discount available).

To book a place please contact Erica Lorenzon
(erica.lorenzoni@leadersinsafeguarding.com) as soon as possible, or call/text her on 07735495729.